Stein Mart's Dreams Come True Fundraiser Helps Fulfill Dreams for Kids

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Stein Mart, Inc. (NASDAQ: SMRT) announced today that it raised nearly $14,000 during the month of May through an instore and corporate office fundraising campaign that benefitted Dreams Come True (DCT) of Jacksonville. As a new DCT fundraising initiative, the Delores Barr Weaver Fund at The Community Foundation for Northeast Florida will be matching the entire amount raised by Stein Mart.

Hunt Hawkins, Stein Mart's Chief Executive Officer presented DCT Executive Director, Sheri Criswell and Special Projects Manager, Jud Seymour with the check yesterday in Stein Mart's corporate office.

"We'd like to thank our Jacksonville area customers and associates from our stores and corporate office for their support and making this a successful event," said Hunt Hawkins. "We look forward to continuing our partnership with DCT to benefit local children."

Dreams Come True is the First Coast's only locally-based dream granting organization dedicated to using the power of a dream to bring hope and joy to every First Coast child battling a life-threatening illness. Since 1984, they have fulfilled the dreams of more than 3,800 children.

"We are so thankful to Stein Mart for hosting this campaign. We will be directing 100% of the funds towards our programs and services in conjunction with our Dreams Come True 5K on September 29, 2018 at the Jacksonville Baseball Grounds," said Sheri Criswell. "It is through our community partners, like Stein Mart, that we are given the opportunity to fulfill our mission of using the power of a dream to bring hope and joy to every local child battling a life-threatening illness."
